

Reed Switch & Magnet Positioning Sheet

								1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
							3
							2
							1
							0
16mm carcass
							1
							2
							3
							4
							5
							6
							7
							8
							cm

Instructions

Connect the controller to the reed switch, LED light and the power supply and ensure the LED light is being switched on and off with the movement of the magnet near the reed switch.

Test various configurations with the magnet and reed switch to determine the best placement for your application.

Refer to Reed Switch & Magnet Configuration Sheet in the Brochure section of the website.